NATIONAL RETREAT

THE GREAT THREE DAYS OF EASTER: THE GREAT TRIDUUM

Our National Retreat will observe The Great Three Days of Easter, known as the Great Triduum. The Retreat has been planned by our Bishop Protector, Bishop Jim White and it is his and our hope that he will also be leading it. Should he not be well enough to lead it, he has put plans in place to enable it to continue.

The Retreat will begin with dinner on Maundy Thursday. Please ensure you arrive in time for this – at 5.30pm.

The Retreat will end with lunch on Easter Sunday, beginning at 12.30pm.

THE GREAT TRIDUUM

While Easter observances are as old as the Christian church itself, in traditional Anglican practice, the heart of the celebration is the Great Triduum, beginning on Maundy Thursday and lasting until Easter Sunday.

The Triduum has been observed in one form or another since the early centuries of Christianity, growing out of the Great Vigil on Holy Saturday to include Maundy Thursday (which commemorates the first eucharist and Jesus' "mandate" to his disciples that they love one another), Good Friday (which commemorates Jesus' death on the cross), and Easter Sunday—which celebrates his resurrection.

In addition to the liturgical celebration of Easter, Anglicans historically and in the present have understood Easter as a time to remember that Christ's more radical social teachings are reflected in his death and resurrection. In medieval England, for example, it was common for monarchs to distribute gifts and money to the poor and to wash the feet of beggars at the Maundy Thursday service in imitation of Jesus, who washed his disciples' feet at the Last Supper – the latter being a tradition which is observed in many churches in Aotearoa, New Zealand.

About El Rancho

All rooms have twin beds. Mid-April temperatures are unpredictable. If you feel the cold it could be worth bringing an extra blanket with you if you have room.

Special Diets

The management is happy to accommodate special diets so long as they have plenty of notice. Please ensure your registration is received by Sunday March 1, 2020.

The management also wish to make people aware that they are unable to guarantee the absence of nuts, or traces of nuts in any item of food supplied.
